

WOMEN ADEPT IN POLITICAL GAME

Ella Flagg Young of Chicago
Elected President of National Educational Association

CHOICE OF NOMINATING COMMITTEE TURNED DOWN

San Francisco Unanimously Selected as Place for Holding Convention in 1911

BOSTON, July 7.—Women teachers showed their knowledge of politics today by forcing the triumphant election of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of public schools of Chicago, as president of the National Educational Association. Her opponent, Zachariah Kenephew Snyder, president of the National Association of Colorado, who was the selection of the nominating committee, representing the states, was defeated by a vote of 1,000 to 100. The convention was held in a clear parliamentary head to cut the knot that the nominating committee had made. Mrs. Snyder, but the women were equal to the occasion. After Mrs. Young had resigned as a candidate for second vice president on the ticket proposed by the general assembly, her friends put her up as a direct candidate against Mr. Snyder. When Mrs. Young was declared the winner, the convention immediately accepted the old name presented by the committee, as follows:

Other Officers Chosen.
Treasurer—P. W. Springer, Michigan.
Vice Presidents—James Y. Joyner,
Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Julia Richman, New York; F. L. Cook, Spearfish, S. D.; George
W. MacFarland, Valley City, N. D.;
Thomas C. Miller, Shepardstown, W. Va.

Charles S. Foss, Reading, Pa.; F. E. Sweetley, Cedar Falls, Ia.; F. C. Hayes, Alva, Okla.; E. T. Fairfield, Tpeka, Kan.; Samuel Avery, Lincoln, Neb.; C. A. Dunnway, Hoxeman, Mont.

A director from each state also was chosen.

Particular attention was paid to the

The convention will close tomorrow night.

A part of the resolutions of the association adopted at the general business meetings follows:

"The National Educational association reaffirms its unalterable opposition to any division of the public school fund among private or sectarian schools and believes appropriations from the federal

The directors decided unanimously to hold the next convention in San Francisco.

MYSTERIOUS ACTION

NEW YORK, July 7.—Officials of the Western Union Telegraph company today declined to discuss the discontinuance of the company's service to stock brokers' offices in Utica, Auburn and Gloversville and would give no indication of the reason for the move or indicate whether similar steps were to be taken or have been taken in other cities. The Utica brokers are agents for a Baltimore company and have been doing large business.

"What induced your directors to take this action?" he was asked.

President Clowry's reply is to be interpreted in the light of the fact that the Western Union was recently indicted by the federal grand jury in Washington for furnishing alleged bucketshop

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 7.—All telegraph business for two brokers in the city was cut off with the market's closing yesterday, but the two firms were unaware of the discontinuance of their service until they tried to open for business.

Two loops from the Western Union telegraph office were cut out before the market opened and about 11 o'clock a force of linemen went into the office and removed every instrument and wire.

BOSTON HERALD GOES INTO RECEIVER'S HANDS

BOSTON, July 7.—On petition of the International Paper company, Judge Col in the United States circuit court late today appointed John Norris of New York, an officer of the American News paper Publishers' association, and Charles F. Weed, an attorney of this city, receivers of the Boston Herald company. In

The court authorized the receivers to issue $50,000 in certificates to enable the business to continue. In its petition to the court the International Paper company claimed the Herald company owed it $200,000 for news print paper.

In Honor of Franklin.
LONDON, July 7.—John L. Griffiths the American consul general, today unveiled a tablet to the memory of Benjamin Franklin in Ecton church, Northamptonshire. In Ecton was the ancestral home of the Franklin family and the birthplace of Benjamin Franklin's father. The old homestead is replaced by a house built in 1757. The church dates from the thirteenth century.

Appeal to Commission.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 7.—Representatives of the state railroad commission of Indiana, Ohio and Michigan, at a joint meeting here today, petitioned the interstate commerce commission to suspend the operation of new freight rates submitted by railroads in the Central Freight association territory, pending the Noted Woman Dies.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Mrs. Richard Henry Savage, widely known as a critic, lecturer and clubwoman, died here today of heart disease. She was 67 years old.
